

Infectious Diseases

Date:

Instructor:

Description: This inservice gives information on the risks, prevalence, symptoms, prevention, and treatment of infectious diseases that may occur in health care settings.

Objectives:

On completion of this inservice, participants will be able to:

Describe several symptoms of Hepatitis

List several methods of preventing and treating Hepatitis

Describe the symptoms of Influenza, Tuberculosis, MRSA, Clostridium Difficile, and Herpes Zoster

Explain the role of Standard Precautions in the prevention of infectious diseases.

Outline:

Hepatitis

Types

Symptoms

Prevalence and risks

Prevention and Treatment

Prevalence, risks, prevention of:

Influenza

Tuberculosis

MRSA

C. Difficile

Herpes Zoster